TOURS DESCRIPTION

City Tour

A sightseeing of Montevideo, the commercial, cultural and tourist center of Uruguay with a population of about one million and a half. Pick up you at hotel, we will see Plaza Independencia (Independence Square), located in the center of the town, in where are the mortal remains of our hero José Gervasio Artigas. Then go down our main street 18 de Julio, to arrive at Plaza Figari (Figari Square) where you can see a monument representative of our history. Visit to the Palacio Legislativo (Legislative Palace-Congress) a multicolored marble building considered one of the most sumptuous in Latin America and we also will visit Montevideo's beautiful parks, famous monuments, such as "La Carreta" (Covered Wagon), Residential Areas as Carrasco, Punta Gorda and Pocitos and Estadio Centenario, our main sport center. On the way back, we will go along the rambla where we will have the opportunity to discover the beaches of Montevideo's coast. Return to the hotel.
